Expectations of Conduct

- www.lincolnlbaseball.org> league info> downloads> General Information> Expectations of Conduct
- EVERY player must have one SIGNED by a parent.
- This document will remain with you, the manager, along with their medical form.
- This document must be shown to a requesting board member or be subject to disciplinary measures.
- The purpose of this is to ELIMINATE all negative sportsmanship and behavior from our fields and stands.

Team Parent

- What does a Team Parent do?
 - Complete all administrative tasks for the team which will allow the Manager and Coaches to concentrate on coaching.
- ALL volunteers (managers, coaches, team parents, practice coaches) MUST complete background checks and a Live Scan.
- Make sure the manager logs in to team site under the roster tab, clicks your name and updates your role to “Team Parent.”
- Collect Volunteer buyout and “Expectations of Conduct” BEFORE uniforms are handed out

Team Parent

- Every team has a Manager, Coaches, and a Team Parent. Older divisions will also need help with field prep and scorekeeping.
- The Team Parent is responsible for helping with LLL reminders, team communications, banners, picture day, snacks, team party, etc. Managers/Coaches have a lot on their plate. It's helpful for another person to manage this for their team.
- Managers, if you have not decided who the Team Parent is for your team, please do so soon.

How to use Team Sideline Sites

- Organize Roster (Manager needs to add Team Parent)
- Medical release forms need to be printed by manager: remind them!
- Adding Important dates to the Team Calendar
- Sending Communications
- How to track payments, etc.
- Mark team snacks, scorekeeping and the game schedule, etc.
- Team Sidelines App: subscribe to calendar for iPhone users

Team Parent Responsibilities

- Ordering Banners/Pennants (Optional)
 - Our Sponsor: Elite Trophies & Awards (Monte & Julie)
- T-Ball - Single A
 - Games are on grass fields with small portable backstops. We recommend one team banner that can be stuck into the grass (like soccer.)
- AA
 - Games are on dirt fields with dugouts, you can hang banners on the back of your dugout/fence.
- AAA and Above
 - Usually do not participate

Team Parent Responsibilities

- Not required but fun team bonding options
 - Donuts at the park after practice
 - Attend and hang out at Day on the Diamond
 - Plan an End of Season party: celebrate the season with trophies and a small thank you gift for the Manager and Coaches
- Order Trophies, Medals or shirts
 - Elite Trophies & Awards: www.elitetrophieslincoln.com
 - Younger kids typically like the trophies or medals
 - Older kids: roster shirts are fun

Team Parent Responsibilities

- Coordinate team snack schedule
 - T-Ball - AA: Up to your team. You can make a schedule of hit the snack bar!
 - Create a sign-up sheet
- Coordinate scorekeeping/pitch count schedule
 - AA: Start learning now. You'll need a scorekeeper for TOCs
 - AAA and above for every game
 - Create a sign-up or create a schedule alphabetically by game.
- Tracking and sending reminders regarding important dates
 - Opening Ceremonies, Day on the Diamond, Picture Day and Closing Ceremonies
- Distributing/Collecting Season Fundraisers
 - Opening ceremony raffle tickets: TURN-IN DAY is FEBRUARY 28, FROM 6-8pm
 - (Paired with a Dine-Out night at Old Town Pizza)
- Tracking team Volunteer Hours
