

Player & Parent Agreement

Players agree to:

- Be teachable.
- Have a positive attitude.
- Work hard 100% of the time.
- Be respectful to teammates, referees, parents, and opposing teams.
- Be a good teammate. Encourage and cheer for your team.

Parents agree to:

- Be respectful to players, referees, and opposing teams.
- Cheer positively for all players and model classy behavior.
- Refrain from being sideline coaches at games. Your child needs you to simply love watching them play.
- Get your player to games on time.
- Commit to all games unless there is an unavoidable event. In such cases, please let teammates know as far in advance as possible.
- NOT address (speak to or yell at) the referees during a game. Doing so can result in a technical foul (1 point to the other team and the ball). Please make sure other family members know this as well.

By signing below, I understand that Rocky Mountain 3v3 leadership and security can and will remove any fans who they deem are demonstrating disrespectful and/or disruptive behavior. In such a case the player(s) must also leave with the adult for the remainder of the day.

By signing below, I understand that Rocky Mountain 3v3 offers full refunds up until March 14, 2025. Once team formation is being finalized we unfortunately cannot make changes or offer refunds.

In the event that a player and/or parent does not abide by our league's player and parent agreements, the league reserves the right to dismiss a player from a team prior to the end of the season. The player forfeits any monies paid towards league fees. The uniform is the player's to keep once purchased.
