Softball Team Manager Duties

Information for Team Managers- NCPRD Adult Softball

As a Team Manager, it is your responsibility to ...

□ Submit a team roster online at NCPRDsports.com before the start of league play. Rosters must have 12 players minimum, and 20 players maximum. Rosters must contain accurate contact information for every team member. Additions/changes can be made to the team roster up to two weeks prior to the start of playoffs, at which time rosters will be frozen. Managers must ensure ALL players are listed on their team roster before they are frozen, in order for them to be eligible to play in any league playoff game (not applicable for winter league).

□ Attend the Team Managers meeting at the Hood View Park Office the week prior to the start of league play (meeting date/time TBA).

□ Make sure every player on your team signs the NCPRD Player Code of Conduct and the Player Waiver Form prior to playing.

C Know (and help enforce) the rules of play, and player eligibility rules, for the league/division that you're playing in, and inform all of your team members of these rules.

C Know (and help enforce) all Hood View Park Complex rules, and inform all of your team members and spectators of these rules.

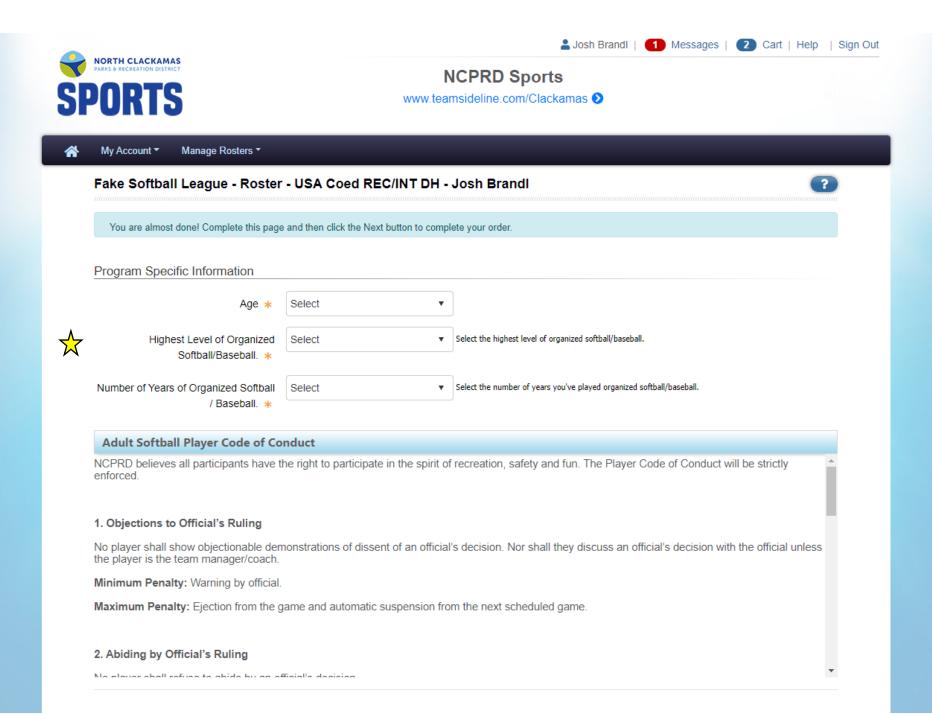

Be responsible for the conduct of your team members and spectators, and assist the umpire in managing the conduct of team members and spectators at all times.

□ Share all scheduling information and other league information with your team members
