FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the Game with the exception that all fouls shall result in an indirect free kick.

When a player deliberately heads the ball in a game, an indirect free kick should be awarded to the opposing team from the spot of the offense. If the deliberate header occurs within the goal area [if one is being used], the indirect free kick should be taken on the goal area line parallel to the goal line at the point nearest to where the infringement occurred.

The game official must explain ALL infringements to the offending player. No cards shown for misconduct.

N.B.: A hand ball infraction occurs when a player handles the ball deliberately. The “hand” includes the entire arm up to the top of the shoulder. Instinctive, self-protective reactions are not penalized at this young age. Accidental contact (ball striking hand or arm) is not an offense and should not be penalized.

PRACTICE & ATTENDANCE:

Practices are an important part of youth recreation programs, but cannot be made mandatory. It is usually not the child’s fault when they miss practices and the child shouldn’t be punished by not playing. If a player on your team is consistently absent from practice without an excuse, try to talk to the parents and see why the child hasn’t been at practice. If it continues to be a problem, make sure the program coordinator is aware of it.

SPORTSMANSHIP:

Team members, coaches and spectators shall exhibit appropriate behavior towards other players, officials, league staff and spectators. Unsportsmanlike conduct from team members and/or associates, including spectators, will result in one or more of the following:

- 1) Player, coach or spectator ejection from the game.
- 2) Player, coach or spectator ejection from the league.
- 3) Player, coach or spectator suspension.
- 4) Forfeiture of game.

During the game, the officials have the authority to eject players, coaches or spectators. Anyone that is ejected from a game will be suspended a minimum of one game. OKC Parks has the final authority on determining the duration of the suspension or other penalty. Any player, coach or spectator ejected from a game must leave the soccer complex . Failure to do so may result in the forfeit of game.
