Youth Sports League Philosophy – Clayton Parks and Recreation

The City of Clayton strongly believes in the benefits of participation in organized sports. Participation in sports has proven to build self-esteem, promote teamwork, develop the body as well as the mind, and is an integral part of the maturation process.

I. To have FUN!!!

- A. Every child should have an enjoyable and positive experience.
- B. According to the American Youth & Sports participation survey:
 - 1. The number one reason children participate in sports is to "have fun."
 - 2. The number two reason why children stop playing sports is "I stopped having fun."

II. Recreational League

- A. The Clayton Parks and Recreation youth sports league is not a competitive league.
- B. The Clayton Parks and Recreation youth sports league allows every child a chance to play no matter what abilities the child posses.
- C. Standings are not kept and scores are de-emphasized.
- D. The Clayton Parks and Recreation youth sports league tries to provide as evenly skilled teams as possible.

III. Every Child receives equal playing time.

- A. Our goal is for children to learn to play the game, which they can not do without participation.
- B. Every child should receive an equal amount of attention during practices.

IV. Open Registration

- A. Our programs are open to anyone who wants to play.
- B. Clayton Parks and Recreation will accommodate every child that signs up before the deadline.
- C. Every child who enrolls before the determined deadline is guaranteed a place in the league.
- D. Waitlist

V. Community Involvement

- A. The Clayton youth sports program is dependent on volunteers.
 - 1. Our leagues can not run successfully without the time and effort of our volunteer coaches, officials, and parental support.
 - 2. Volunteer coaches will be trained and encouraged to make the extra effort to:
 - a. understand children's needs
 - b. give positive help rather than negative criticism
 - c. be positive role models to the children
 - d. teach the respective sport to the best of their ability
 - e. follow the philosophy and standards as outlined by the Clayton Youth Sports League
- B. The Clayton Parks and Recreation youth sports league encourage our participant's parents or guardians to become positively involved with their child's respective league.

VI. Good Sportsmanship

- A. Athletic contests naturally involve competition
 - 1. The Clayton Youth Sports League desires to create an atmosphere in which the game is played with constructive orientation, rather than a win at all costs attitude.
 - 2. Respect towards teammates, coaches, and referees must be instilled in all participants.
 - 3. No matter what the outcome of the game, everyone gains a positive experience if they are treated respectfully and congratulated for giving their best effort.
