Access Agreement

By accepting and using this ticket/pass, the holder ("Participant") expressly agrees to the following terms and conditions:

Authorized Use:

1. This ticket/pass is valid solely for participation in youth basketball practices and games scheduled within the designated times at the Center of Clayton. Any use of this ticket/pass outside of these specified purposes is strictly prohibited.

Non-Transferability:

1. This ticket/pass is non-transferable. It may not be shared, loaned, or given to any individual who is NOT directly affiliated with the designated youth basketball league. Unauthorized use by any third party may result in immediate revocation of access privileges.

Compliance with Conduct Standards:

1. The Participant agrees to abide by the Clayton Parks and Recreation Youth Sports Code of Conduct at all times while on the premises. Any behavior deemed inappropriate or in violation of this Code, as determined solely by the Center of Clayton, may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to:
 - o Immediate removal from the facility
 - o Temporary or permanent suspension of facility access
 - o Disqualification or removal from the youth sports league

Enforcement and Disciplinary Action:

1. The Center of Clayton reserves the right to enforce these terms at its sole discretion. Violations of this agreement may result in consequences as outlined above, without refund or compensation.

By using this ticket/pass, the Participant acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms of this agreement and accept all responsibilities and consequences associated with its use.
