

YOUTH/RECREATION ASSISTANCE

The Fairview Park Women's Club has a youth recreation assistance program to aid families living in Fairview Park that are going through financial difficulties. Families can apply for assistance with paying the registration fee for one child per family per season (fall/winter/spring/summer) for recreation department programs offered through the Gemini Center. Please fill out the application and return to sally.lisowski@yahoo.com at least 10 days before the registration deadline for the activity. All applications are kept confidential.
