Coach Code of Conduct Contract

Youth athletic sports program play an important role in promoting the physical, social, and emotional development of children. It is therefore essential for parents, coaches, and youth athletes to embrace the values of good sportsmanship. Moreover, adults involved in youth sports events should be models of good sportsmanship and lead by example by demonstrating fairness, respect, and self-control.

I, Coach, will;

- Use positive coaching methods which provide an enjoyable experience for my players, increase their self-esteem, and foster in them a true sense of enjoyment of the sport in which they are engaged.
- Not ridicule or yell at players for any reason.
- Treat officials with respect and dignity and instruct my players and parents to do the same.
- Treat opposing coaches and their players with respect and dignity and encourage my players and parents to do the same.
- Observe all player participation rules and strive to make each player feel valuable to the team regardless of any physical or development limitations he/she may have.
- Teach the principles of fair play and sportsmanship to my players and model these principles for them at all times.
- Commit to learn the rules of the game and teach those rules to my players and their parents to the best of my understanding.
- Agree to support and work my assigned team throughout the designated season.
- Understand that the all players need and deserve equal play time.
- Agree to hold regular practices and show up to scheduled games.
- Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players and immediately inform parents of sickness/injury.
- Refrain from all manners of abuse and harassment; including but not limited to verbal, physical, emotional, or sexual.
- Refrain from using/inhibiting any illegal substances, tobacco products, and/or alcohol in the presence of my players.
- Encourage safe play at all times and report any unsafe playing conditions.
- Report any conduct that violates this code which adversely affects the positive family-friendly environment of the League City Parks Recreation Programs.
- Conduct myself in a manner that would be an example and a role model to the youth.

I hereby acknowledge, I, Coach have read the City of Conroe Parks Recreation Code of Conduct and agree to adhere to the stated expectations, philosophies, and guidelines. I understand that non-compliance could lead to removal from my coaching
