- C. Upon entering a league, each team and all players agree to abide by the rules and regulations stated in this rulebook.

III. FEES AND REFUNDS

- A. No team fees will be refunded after registration has taken place, unless a replacement team is found.
- B. Money (fees) will not be refunded to any player or team expelled from the league.

Exception: Players may be 17 years old for the Spring/Summer Coed & Women's league if they are turning 18 years of age by December 31 of the calendar year in which the league plays. Current varsity high school players are not eligible to participate during their soccer season. For 35+ leagues, all players must be 35 years or older by December 31 of the calendar year in which the league plays.

- B. Rosters: Team rosters must be fully completed and returned to the Athletics office at the time of registration.
- C. All players must be on the team roster to be eligible. Players in violation of this rule may be suspended for one game and up to one calendar year. Any game in which a non-rostered player plays may be forfeited, and the team may be put on probation for one calendar year.

coach/manager or team member on the sidelines found to be disruptive to the game may be given a yellow card.

- B. Red Cards: Any team member receiving a red card must leave the site of the playing area within three minutes. If the ejected team member does not leave the premises within this time limit, the game will be forfeited. Any player who does not give his/her name as requested by the official or reports a false name after a red card will be suspended for the rest of the season and the game in which he/she participated will be forfeited.
- C. If a player receives a red card, he/she shall receive a minimum one-game suspension. Any player receiving two red cards, or one red card and one suspension will be suspended for the remainder of the current season plus one full calendar year.
- D. “Soft” Red Cards: Ejections considered as “soft” red cards (receiving a second caution in the same game) will be counted as two yellow cards for administrative purposes.

A red card issued for a “professional foul” such as an intentional handball to prevent a goal or a breakaway foul will result in the player being ejected from that game only. This type of “soft” red card will be counted as a yellow card for Athletics administrative purposes.

VI. SPECIAL RULES OF CONDUCT

- A. Post Ejection and/or After Game Behavior: Players shall not display unsporting behavior toward an official after the game or after being ejected from a game (via red card or two yellow cards). Such behavior will be reported to the Athletics staff and action equivalent to that resulting from a yellow or red card may be taken. After-game abuse toward referees will not be tolerated.

- B. Jerseys (t-shirts):
 1. Numbers: Teams must have PERMANENT NUMBERED jerseys of the same color for all players by the first game. Numbers should be visible on either the front or the back of the jersey. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the non-jersey player(s) not being allowed to play. If the team cannot field five players in regulation uniforms (plus the goalie), the game will be forfeited.

 2. Standby Jerseys: Teams are required to provide their own numbered standby jerseys. The designated home team must wear the standby jerseys when both teams have similarly colored jerseys.

*Pliable rubber or Silicone piercing plugs necessary for player safety are not considered jewelry and will be allowed.

Officials still have the authority to deem a piercing plug unsafe for players and request they remove them.

- H. Bleeding: For the safety of all involved, participants will not be allowed to participate following an injury where blood is present until proper bandaging of the injured area prevents any and all leakage, and all tainted clothing/articles are removed. Participants returning to play should first check in with the official to determine that no further risk to themselves or others is apparent or likely.
- I. Eye Wear: Players who need to wear Eye Wear are ok to do so. The waiver is now included on the roster and add forms that players sign to play.

IX. LEAGUE GAME RULES (★Designates new rule)

Any rules not stated below will be governed by FIFA rules.

- A. All teams must have at least six players to start the game. If, at any time during a game a team has fewer than six eligible players, the game may continue as long as it is competitive in the referee's judgment.
- B. Each game will consist of two 45-minute halves and a five-minute halftime break. If, in the referee's judgment, weather conditions and/or darkness prevail, the game can be shortened. Games ending with the score tied will stand as a tie.
- C. All games are played regardless of weather conditions unless the Athletics staff contacts teams to cancel games.
- *D. Substitution into the game is unlimited. Players may enter the game after receiving the official's permission in the following situations:

Either team can substitute: Throw-in, corner kick, free kick, Halftime, following a goal, injured player (after play is stopped), cautioned player, goal kick.

- E. Team Advantage (Women's League only): At any time during the game that a team is ahead by 5 goals; the opposing team may add an additional player to the field to create a one-player advantage (e.g. 9 players v. 8 players). Once the team with the additional player reduces the score to less than 5 points, the additional player must exit the field and the teams will again play with the same number of players per side.
- F. No Sliding or Slide Tackling – Men's Recreational League:
Field players may not slide or slide tackle at any time during the game. Exception: goal keepers may – only in the penalty box -- slide to retrieve the ball but may not slide feet first to take the ball away from an opponent in possession of the ball.

The foul will result in an indirect kick for the opposing team.

As for any concurrent foul, this infraction may result in a caution (yellow card) or an ejection (red card) when, in the judgment of the referee, such infraction is careless, reckless, or excessive/violent.

X. ELEVEN-A-SIDE COED RULES

- A. Team Composition: Teams are comprised of five male field players and five female field players. The goalie can be of either gender. Teams can play with as few as six players including the goalie. The ratio of male and female players does not have to be equal; however, no more than five men (excluding goalie) can play on the field at one time and teams must have at least two players (excluding goalie) of each gender on the field at all times.

Teams may substitute a woman for a man ONLY with the following conditions:

1. There are not five male players present to play on the field, and
2. The team that opts to substitute a woman for a man relinquishes the two-point female score (for the remainder of game regardless if additional men arrive at the field and the team goes back to 5-men and 5-women field players).

- B. No Sliding or Slide Tackling: Field players may not slide or slide tackle at any time during the game. Exception: goal keepers may – only in the penalty box -- slide to retrieve the ball but may not slide feet first to take the ball away from an opponent in possession of the ball. The foul will result in an indirect kick for the opposing team.

As for any concurrent foul, this infraction may result in a caution (yellow card) or an ejection (red card) when, in the judgment of the referee, such infraction is careless, reckless, or excessive/violent.

- C. Scoring: In coed leagues men's goals count as one point and women's goals count as two points. Exception: penalty kicks and own goals count as one point regardless of the gender of the kicker. Teams may, with mutual manager's consent, change this rule to one point per goal regardless of the gender of the scorer. The referee must be notified of this rule change prior to the start of the game in order to be in effect.

- D. Team Advantage: At any time during the game that a team is ahead by 6 points, the opposing team may add an additional player to the field to create a one-player advantage (e.g. 12 players vs. 11 players). The player added may be either male or female. Once the team with the additional player reduces the score to fewer than 6 points, the additional player must exit the field and the teams will again play with the same number of players per side.

- E. When a solo referee system is used, offsides will be called with the understanding that the solo ref will not always be able to get into position to accurately call all offsides (especially if it is a close call or if teams are attempting an offsides trap).

Teams are responsible for calling the ball out of bounds. If a call is in dispute, the referee will either: a) make a call, or b) issue a drop ball.

- F. Substitution into the game is unlimited. Players may enter the game after receiving the official's permission.

- D. No Sliding or Slide Tackling: Field players may not slide or slide tackle at any time during the game. Exception: goal keepers may -- only in the penalty box – slide to retrieve the ball but may not slide feet first to take the ball away from an opponent in possession of the ball. The foul will result in an indirect kick for the opposing team.

As for any concurrent foul, this infraction may result in a caution (yellow card) or an ejection (red card) when, in the judgment of the referee, such infraction is careless, reckless, or excessive/violent.

- E. Substitutes do not need the referee's permission to enter the game (unless the player has not already been checked-off on the line-up sheet by the referee). If a player substitutes during live play, the person leaving the field must be off the field before the substitute enters.
- F. Artificial Turf Field Layout: The field size will be 80 yards long (goals shall be placed on the 10-yard line) by 53 yards wide (football sidelines). The penalty box will extend to the 25-yard line with its sidelines visually extended from the regulation field penalty box to the 25-yard line. For goal kicks, the ball shall be placed on the 15-yard line (with regulation field goalie box sidelines visually extended).

Once a forfeit has been declared by the referee, teams have 15 minutes after the scheduled game time to have at least six players on each team ready to play. Teams involved in the forfeit may "borrow" players from each other to meet the minimum player requirement.
 - 2. All players must be on the official roster of one of the participating teams.
 - 3. If, for whatever reason, one of the teams is reduced to fewer than six eligible players, the referee(s) will not work the game. Teams may use the remaining field time if they choose to do so.
 - 4. The length of the entire game will not exceed 95 minutes past the originally scheduled game time.
